Behind The Scenes

The People's Pantry

It was announced this past week that The People's Pantry, which provides groceries and emergency supplies to our neighbors, will be closing soon. This non-profit ministry has been led by Lori Dryer with her husband David, and Terri Qualls as the operational team since its beginning 17 years ago. They began as a part of GracePoint Baptist Church, which moved to combine with us in 2012. Many volunteers have faithfully served alongside through the years. They have worked tirelessly within our congregation, securing food from the Food Bank of Northeastern Oklahoma, local discount stores, and through the donations of canned goods and fresh foods from wonderful people like you. We will never know this side of heaven the full impact of this ministry performed in the name of Jesus. The Pantry has been open for all these years every Wednesday evening, holidays, harsh weather, and Covid, included. As we pray for new leadership to step forward, we will seek to continue this vital food ministry to our community after a brief pause. Wednesday, October 1, will be the closing night. A time of appreciation for the Dryers and Terri is being planned.

The Community Dinners

Our Wednesday Evening Community Dinners continue. Generally, we serve 50 to 60 hot meals each week. Anyone, and everyone, is welcome. Russell Ford, Patty Hickman, and Jason Ford are the lead cooks, assisted by volunteers like Elizabeth Williams, Ben Shepard, and Diep Vo. This week Russell Ford needs healing prayers. Russell has developed a blistering on his leg, which is not uncommon for an amputee. This may necessitate a medical procedure and mandatory rest. We need an extra volunteer or two to help with meal preparation and clean up for a few hours on Wednesdays and/or with Breakfast on Sunday mornings. Thank you for being such a marvelous people, on mission for our Lord.
